Arkansas Heir Property Act 2015

Protecting The Heritage Of Arkansas Families

"Passage of the Heir Property Act would prevent the forced sale of inherited property against the heir's wishes, encouraging the retention of family-owned land and promoting the growth of generational wealth."

Let's Get Started

We promote passage of the Partition of Heirs Property Act in 2015 by the Arkansas Legislature. This law would provide valuable protection for families that co-own inherited land and want to keep the land in the family.

- Ask for your legislator's support
- Spread the word

If you have inherited family land, you should learn about the Uniform Partition of Heirs Property Act. This law is designed to do two things:

1. Help families maintain ownership of their joint-owned land.

2. But if sale is required; ensure court-ordered sale results in market rate return so that families do not loose wealth upon sale.

This legislation has already been passed in Georgia, Nevada, and Montana. We are working to ensure Arkansas joins that list in 2015 when the legislature next considers non-budgetary issues.

Join us in protecting the heritage of Arkansas families. We are reaching out to families and legislators in all 75 Arkansas counties.

Spread the word and let us make the Arkansas Heir Property Act law in 2015!
