

Hendrik Hofmeyr

TU PAUPERUM REFUGIUM

for 2 (or four) mixed choirs with the participation of the audience

TU PAUPERUM REFUGIUM (2000)

Hendrik Hofmeyr (*1957)

Tu pauperum refugium was commissioned for the UNESCO-sponsored SongBridge 2001 concert in Vancouver, where it was performed by the Tygerberg Children's Choir (South Africa), the Odawara Children's Choir (Japan), the Moran Choir (Israel) and the Newfoundland Symphony Youth Choir, with the participation of the audience.

The main body of the work consists of an extended invocation in the form of a polychoral motet, based on an anonymous Latin text, and ending with a plea for peace. This is preceded by a briefer introductory section, based on passages from the Old Testament, in which the horrors of violence and oppression are described. This section features several extra-musical effects (whispering, hissing, finger- and tongue-clicks, foot-stamping and indeterminate clusters), many of which form part of the South African choral tradition.

Gladius evaginaverunt peccatores:
intenderunt arcum suum
et dejiciant pauperum et inopem.
Crudelis est, et non miserebitur:
vox ejus quasi mare sonabit.
Viduam et advenam interfecerunt et pupillos occiderunt.
Vastitas et contritio in viis eorum.

*The wicked have drawn the sword,
and have bent their bow,
to cast down the poor and needy.
They are cruel and have no mercy;
their voice roareth like the sea.
They slay the widow and the stranger,
and murder the orphan.
Desolation and destruction are in their paths.*

Tu pauperum refugium,
tu languorum remedium,
spes exsulum,
fortitudo laborantium,
via errantium,
veritas et vita,
dona nobis pacem.

*Thou, Refuge of the Poor, Thou, Healer of the Weak,
Hope of the Exiled,
Strength of the Weary,
Path of the Strayed,
Truth and Life,
grant us peace.*

Hendrik Hofmeyr was born in Cape Town in 1957. His first major success as a composer came in 1988 with the performance at the State Theatre of The Fall of the House of Usher, which won the South African Opera Competition and was also awarded the Nederburg Opera Prize. In the same year, Hofmeyr, who was furthering his studies in Italy during ten years of self-imposed political exile, obtained first prize in an international competition in Trent with music for a short film by Wim Wenders. In 1992 he accepted a post as lecturer at the University of Stellenbosch, and in 1997 won two further international competitions, the Queen Elisabeth Competition of Belgium (with Raptus for violin and orchestra) and the Dimitri Mitropoulos Competition in Athens (with Byzantium for high voice and orchestra). Hofmeyr is currently professor and Head of Composition and Music Theory at the University of Cape Town, where he obtained his Doctorate in 1999. His Incantesimo for flute was chosen to represent South Africa at the Congress of the International Society of Contemporary Music in Croatia in 2005, and in 2008 he was honoured with a Kanna Award by the Klein Karoo National Arts Festival. He received the UCT Creative Arts Award for his Second Symphony – The Elements in 2018, and in 2021 a CD of his works entitled Partita africana was chosen as CD of the Month by the French magazine Classica. Hofmeyr's oeuvre comprises six operas, two ballets, two symphonies, thirteen concerti and numerous vocal and instrumental works, and includes some 130 commission works.

If the work is performed without the participation of the audience, the whole of Choir II may sing the audience part from bar 217 to bar 232 after which several basses from each choir should hum the sustained E flat (an octave below the written pitch) until the end.

Alternative version for four choirs:

The work may also be performed by four SATB choirs with the optional participation of the audience. Choirs I and II should be placed separately onstage and Choirs III and IV on either side at the back of the auditorium. Alternatively, Choirs III and IV may start onstage and walk into the auditorium from bar 166 onwards.

Bars 1-165: Choirs I and II sing (and stamp their feet) as indicated;
 Choirs III and IV do the humming during the repeat (bars 1-68).

Bars 166-211: Choirs I and II sing as indicated;
 Choir III: Altos join from bar 179, basses from bar 191, sopranos and tenors from bar 204;
 Choir IV: tenors and basses join from bar 191, sopranos and altos from bar 204.

Bars 212-end: Choirs I and II sing the part assigned to Choir I;
 Choirs III and IV sing the part assigned to Choir II.

If this version is performed without the participation of the audience, Choirs III and IV may sing the audience part from bar 217 to bar 232, after which several basses from each of the four choirs should hum the sustained E flat (an octave below the written pitch) until the end.
