8. Describe this painting

A	Describe this painting
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A man with a pink top and turquoise pants is dancing on the boat</li> <li>• There are eight men on the wooden platform</li> <li>• Old. Colourful</li> <li>• Big. Memorising. Weird</li> <li>• Weird. Detailed</li> <li>• -</li> <li>• Bright, old, happy and intricate</li> <li>• Cool</li> <li>• It is colourful and happy</li> <li>• This looks like an old painting and it's got lots of people</li> <li>• Very colourul. People are dancing</li> <li>• Beautiful, definitely majestic</li> <li>• Weird and detailed</li> <li>• It has good techniques</li> <li>• It has clear water. Peoples dancing</li> <li>• It has 8 people on a tug boat</li> </ul>
B	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In the background the beautiful sun shines comeing from the corner. In the foreground I can see a boat with the men standing and sitting on it. Also in the</li> </ul>

background, I can see tall, wide mountains fading into the distance, The trees seem to be reflected on the water.

- The man is jumping with a smiley face. In the background I can see the dark fog sky with green bushes. In the foreground I can see a happy man. Some are sitting down. Some look cold. The men are really happy because they might have been on a ship for a long time and someone is going to save them, or they are going to see a special person.
- In the background there are two long old poor men. There (are) expressions on their faces and it looks like they are dancing. One of the men is playing an instrument and one is dancing. One of the men looks like he's sleeping... In the foreground is the back of the boat which is made of wood and has cloths.
- In the background there is a sun setting and a man dancing. I can see the sea and trees. The way the men are sitting and standing shows happiness. Thus picture is a happy picture. It makes me happy because of the colours that are used.
- People are playing music
- The foreground is like a mini dock and in the background is the two men, In the back of the painting colours are being used for the man dancing in the pink shirt
- In the background are two islands. I see people dancing. In the foreground is a pond with a boat on it.
- In the foreground I see a shirt hanging, ladder and a hose, There are also trees and water.
- The man in the red jumper is dancing, There is a sunset, the men are on a ship, there are a lot of tall trees. I think he is dancing because they are having a celebration. It's 3D. There is a blue jumper which is about to fall off the ship in the foreground.
- The men dancing on the boat / there's bright colours. They are happy!!!!!! In the foreground there's men, raft, hats, clothes.
- In the foreground there is a wooden boat with a tee-shirt hanging off it. In the background there is a horizon. In the middle there is a man dancing.
- In the foreground I see clothes, a ladder, baskets and water. In the background I see trees, water, cliffs, reflections and the sky. The colours that have been used show they have probably been there a long time. I think the main point of the painting is the man in the blue jeans and pink top because it draws my attention from the other men.

- Critique art: In the foreground, a boat with starving, impatient men stream on a boat. In the background, the elongated sea loops beyond their reach. Colours used are aqua jeans and rose jumpers, plus beige and ivy trousers, In the distance, the distance makes trees look like sheets.
- In the background, there are trees with a pinky blue sky. In the foreground, there is a raft with men dancing and sitting with cowboy hats and someone is playing a guitar and there's a light blue jacket hanging off the side. I think the painting was painted in 1985. I think they're celebrating on a raft.
- I see trees and the yellowish blue sky in the background, I see 7 people and people dancing with a man playing a guitar.
- Not much contrast, pale, there's nothing really happening and smooth. They look bored and tired apart from the man dancing. The reflection of the water isn't very clear and I wonder where they slept.
- There is men, There is a platform, There is a ladder. There is clothes, There are boots. There is ocean blue colour. There is an island. There is a man standing. There is a sunset. There is trees.
- The men are happy. The man in red is dancing.
- This painting has light peach smooth colours and the man's jacket is nice pink and that's a nice colour I really like. In the foreground is men and one is dancing. In the background there is ocean, trees, sky, land and light, white sun, This painting is about a man dancing in a wooden boat and 7 more men watching and the nice light blue sky waking the beautiful world up. The sun being a white pale colour.
- In the background there are trees, water, and the sun. In the foreground, there are men with happy faces, a wooden boat and water. In the painting the men are dancing but some are sitting down, I think they are dancing because they are celebrating the man in the middle's birthday.
- The man swung his arms up as he pounced off of the wooden box. It looks like it as some acrylic painting in the background. Some oil paint might be for the men in the foreground.
- In the background I can see a jungle / trees. In the foreground I can see a raft, people and a t-shirt. In the full painting I can see people, men, a boat, a t-shirt, a ladder.

- In the background I can see distant island and lots of trees. In the foreground I see a man dancing and jumping. The colours in the painting look old and tanned, The only colourful colours are the pink and blue on the man.
- The sun is setting while all these people hang out and dance with each other. The sky is a navy blue colour. They're wearing bright colours. Looks like they're having fun. In the foreground there are people. There are islands in the background. The painting is realistic. Only men in the painting.
- The painting isn't colourful.
- It looks realistic. It looks like it's real because it is realistic. There is lots of colour. It looks like it's on a lake.
- In this painting I can see a man in a red shirt and blue jeans jumping on the boat. In the distance I can see tall trees on a separate island, The time in the painting is sunset because the sun is really low and everyone looks tired. I see a man in a white and red shirt with his hands on the back of his head laying in the sun.
- The small but large boat swayed side to side as everyone was relaxing. Everyone was waiting to get to land.
- The painting is not very colourful. The man is different to the others.
- Happy because the man looks like he is dancing. The background looks peaceful. It looks like they are on a boat. It's a creative painting because it has a sunset that looks like an artist has taken a picture.
- In the distance all I can see are trees. The people look happy by themselves.
- The water is blue like the sky. The colours the artist has used are blue green red brown white yellow peach purple and pink. In the background I can see trees and water.
- It's (a) painting about a journey and men dancing and drinking. In the foreground, I can see men dancing and enjoying themselves. In the background I can see cliffs piling on top of each other (and) water flowing.
- The trees in the distance stretched side to side as water splashed through the sea. The cotton clothing on the people blew in the wind above the sea. The boat travelled across the slow cold dirty sea towards the island.
- The stream of water carrying the light wooden boat,. The background has trees overlapping each other. In the foreground I see a blue t-shirt and quarter of it hanging off.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A man is standing on a seat and a man is laying down</li> <li>• All the people look sad because they had to leave their family behind and one of the other people looks happy</li> <li>• Confusing because we do not know what is happening.
