

Propaganda Posts

1. Standard Indicator

ID	Post	Source	Lean
1	 ... Entire U.S. supply of diesel engine oil may be wiped out in 8 weeks. Considering some buffer time in all this, that puts us at around mid-November for the “truck-a-geddon” scenario where trucks are no longer functioning because there’s no engine oil. The way things are going under the Biden administration — a senile crook who was thrust into power with a rigged, illegitimate “election” — we can only expect the worst. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	naturalnews.com	Right
2	 ... The United States Postal Service is in desperate shape. USPS Postmaster General Louis de Joy is the one person most culpable in the relentless dismantling of our national treasure. Specifics of his assaults on the post office and his illicit political agenda are highlighted by his compromising of public trust during the 2020 election. Those USPS board of governors appointed by President Biden are negligent, and clearly, the entire anachronistic Board has failed This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	smobserved.com	Right
3	 ... Veteran Used Shotgun Butt To Beat Home Invader To Death After Attacker Slashed His Wife With A Knife. What good would gun control have done the Parrish couple? Not one bit! We’d just like to say to this Vietnam veteran: Mr. Parrish, you’re a damn fine American — and millions of gun owners are proud as hell of what you did to protect yourself and your wife. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	secondamendmentdaily.com	Right
4	 ... 69-year-old grandma with breast cancer going to prison for entering capitol building on January 6th. According to the Bidens Department of Justice, this woman is a domestic terrorist. Absolutely disgusting. The USA has become a commie banana republic. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	thewashingtonstandard.com	Right

ID	Post	Source	Lean
5	  ...  The disgraced former president's son shared a clip of Bezos thanking Amazon's workers and customers for making his space trip possible. "They sure did," wrote Trump Jr. of Bezos's claim that Amazon workers helped pay for the space trip. "I bet they'd rather have gotten a raise." While Amazon workers would certainly appreciate a raise as well as better work conditions, the idea that Donald Trump Jr. cares one iota about them is preposterous. The Republican Party he adores has repeatedly blocked efforts to increase the federal minimum wage. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	occupydemocrats.com	Left
6	  ...  Republicans have weaponized the Supreme Court to weaken our democracy and obstruct progress. Now, everything that is essential to our lives — from protecting our voting rights to combating climate change and ensuring access to affordable health care -- depends on Supreme Court reform. The only way to immediately reverse Republicans' theft of the Court is to expand it by adding additional seats. It's time to take action This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	leftaction.com	Left
7	  ...  Trump's Truth Social On The Verge Of Imploding As Feds Ramp Up Investigations. Of course, it shouldn't surprise anyone that yet another company aligned with the disgraced ex-president is imploding. After all, he's made a career of creating companies and products that fail miserably and wind up mired in a legal morass. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	new.deepleftfield.info	Left
8	  ...  Florida Governor Ron DeSantis is leading a hate crusade like America hasn't seen since the end of Jim Crow. From banning books to attempting to disenfranchise voters and overturn fair elections in other states, Republicans have the country on a suspicious and familiar slippery slope. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	thegopwatchdog.com	Left

ID	Post	Source	Lean
9	  ██████████ ...  What we really need is a new generation of lawmakers who will free people from the bondage chains that we're being wrapped in by all these unconstitutional mandates. Politicians who will instill confidence into people that they can be prosperous with their own efforts like those before them who have realized their American Dreams. Only then can the country move forward to a higher ground and help other countries around the world prosper. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	rt.com	Independent
10	  ██████████ ...  We must ask the question, does our government want us to feed our families and build our rural economies, or continue to cater to Wall Street? While American farmers may not see themselves as peasants, maybe they should. Granted, it won't be easy to create local and regional food systems that are based on environmentally responsible, small-scale operations that grow nutritious, fairly priced food. Yet dismissing peasant agriculture also diminishes our chances to control our food system. If what appears in the UNDROP makes sense, then being a peasant is something to aspire to, a goal that all of us who care about agriculture should work towards. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	wisconsinla ketimes.co m	Independent
11	  ██████████ ...  In an eerie semblance to George Orwell's '1984', the RESTRICT Act, looms as a dark cloud over American liberties. The parallels to Orwell's vision are striking, as the RESTRICT Act essentially serves as a tool of control and punishment. It is a sobering reminder of the dystopian fate that awaits the public if it allows government unchecked power in the name of security from foreign nations. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	rt.com	Independent
12	  ██████████ ...  Given the ten years since the Edward Snowden leaks, we already know that US intelligence collects all sorts of bulk data about people. We know that the US has programs like PRISM, which allows for the direct monitoring of Americans' Google and Yahoo accounts, or XKeyscore, which is an analytical tool that collects "almost anything done on the internet." And the US is able to do this — maintain its global information hegemony — because companies are compelled to provide data via search warrants. Many countries around the world, especially those in Europe, are taking cues from US intelligence to ban Chinese or Russian technology while completely ignoring the elephant in the room: the US government and its partners in the private sector are the chief threats to global cyber security. This post has been flagged as propaganda   Like            Comment            Share         	rt.com	Independent

2. Contextual Indicator

ID	Post	Source	Lean
1	        Entire U.S. supply of diesel engine oil may be wiped out in 8 weeks. Considering some buffer time in all this, that puts us at around mid-November for the “truck-a-geddon” scenario where trucks are no longer functioning because there’s no engine oil. The way things are going under the Biden administration — a senile crook who was thrust into power with a rigged, illegitimate “election” — we can only expect the worst. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li>Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li>Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	naturalnews.com	Right
2	        The United States Postal Service is in desperate shape. USPS Postmaster General Louis de Joy is the one person most culpable in the relentless dismantling of our national treasure. Specifics of his assaults on the post office and his illicit political agenda are highlighted by his compromising of public trust during the 2020 election. Those USPS board of governors appointed by President Biden are negligent, and clearly, the entire anachronistic Board has failed This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Causal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue.</li> <li>Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li>Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	smobserved.com	Right

ID	Post	Source	Lean
3	 Veteran Used Shotgun Butt To Beat Home Invader To Death After Attacker Slashed His Wife With A Knife. What good would gun control have done the Parrish couple? Not one bit! We'd just like to say to this Vietnam veteran: Mr. Parrish, you're a damn fine American — and millions of gun owners are proud as hell of what you did to protect yourself and your wife. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> <li>Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li>Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul> Like Comment Share	secondamendmentdaily.com	Right
4	 69-year-old grandma with breast cancer going to prison for entering capitol building on January 6th. According to the Bidens Department of Justice, this woman is a domestic terrorist. Absolutely disgusting. The USA has become a commie banana republic. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> <li>Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li>Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> </ul> Like Comment Share	thewashingtonstandard.com	Right
5	 The disgraced former president's son shared a clip of Bezos thanking Amazon's workers and customers for making his space trip possible. "They sure did," wrote Trump Jr. of Bezos's claim that Amazon workers helped pay for the space trip. "I bet they'd rather have gotten a raise." While Amazon workers would certainly appreciate a raise as well as better work conditions, the idea that Donald Trump Jr. cares one iota about them is preposterous. The Republican Party he adores has repeatedly blocked efforts to increase the federal minimum wage. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li>Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> <li>Causal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue.</li> </ul> Like Comment Share	occupydemocrats.com	Left

ID	Post	Source	Lean
6	  ...  Republicans have weaponized the Supreme Court to weaken our democracy and obstruct progress. Now, everything that is essential to our lives — from protecting our voting rights to combating climate change and ensuring access to affordable health care -- depends on Supreme Court reform. The only way to immediately reverse Republicans' theft of the Court is to expand it by adding additional seats. It's time to take action This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> <li>Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> <li>Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	leftaction.com	Left
7	  ...  Trump's Truth Social On The Verge Of Imploding As Feds Ramp Up Investigations. Of course, it shouldn't surprise anyone that yet another company aligned with the disgraced ex-president is imploding. After all, he's made a career of creating companies and products that fail miserably and wind up mired in a legal morass. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li>Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	new.deepleftfield.info	Left
8	  ...  Florida Governor Ron DeSantis is leading a hate crusade like America hasn't seen since the end of Jim Crow. From banning books to attempting to disenfranchise voters and overturn fair elections in other states, Republicans have the country on a suspicious and familiar slippery slope. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	thegopwatchdog.com	Left

ID	Post	Source	Lean
9	 ... What we really need is a new generation of lawmakers who will free people from the bondage chains that we're being wrapped in by all these unconstitutional mandates. Politicians who will instill confidence into people that they can be prosperous with their own efforts like those before them who have realized their American Dreams. Only then can the country move forward to a higher ground and help other countries around the world prosper. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li>Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li>Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> </ul>   Like          Comment          Share       	rt.com	Independent
10	 ... We must ask the question, does our government want us to feed our families and build our rural economies, or continue to cater to Wall Street? While American farmers may not see themselves as peasants, maybe they should. Granted, it won't be easy to create local and regional food systems that are based on environmentally responsible, small-scale operations that grow nutritious, fairly priced food. Yet dismissing peasant agriculture also diminishes our chances to control our food system. If what appears in the UNDROP makes sense, then being a peasant is something to aspire to, a goal that all of us who care about agriculture should work towards. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> <li>Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> </ul>   Like          Comment          Share       	wisconsinlaketimes.com	Independent
11	 ... In an eerie semblance to George Orwell's '1984', the RESTRICT Act, looms as a dark cloud over American liberties. The parallels to Orwell's vision are striking, as the RESTRICT Act essentially serves as a tool of control and punishment. It is a sobering reminder of the dystopian fate that awaits the public if it allows government unchecked power in the name of security from foreign nations. This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like          Comment          Share       	rt.com	Independent

ID	Post	Source	Lean
12	...Given the ten years since the Edward Snowden leaks, we already know that US intelligence collects all sorts of bulk data about people. We know that the US has programs like PRISM, which allows for the direct monitoring of Americans' Google and Yahoo accounts, or XKeyscore, which is an analytical tool that collects "almost anything done on the internet." And the US is able to do this — maintain its global information hegemony — because companies are compelled to provide data via search warrants.Many countries around the world, especially those in Europe, are taking cues from US intelligence to ban Chinese or Russian technology while completely ignoring the elephant in the room: the US government and its partners in the private sector are the chief threats to global cyber security.This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way.Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternativeCausal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue.LikeCommentShare	rt.com	Independent

3. Warning+Contextual Indicator

ID	Post	Source	Lean
1	   ...   Entire U.S. supply of diesel engine oil may be wiped out in 8 weeks. Considering some buffer time in all this, that puts us at around mid-November for the "truck-a-geddon" scenario where trucks are no longer functioning because there's no engine oil. The way things are going under the Biden administration — a senile crook who was thrust into power with a rigged, illegitimate "election" — we can only expect the worst.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li> Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li> Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	naturalnews.com	Right
2	   ...   The United States Postal Service is in desperate shape. USPS Postmaster General Louis de Joy is the one person most culpable in the relentless dismantling of our national treasure. Specifics of his assaults on the post office and his illicit political agenda are highlighted by his compromising of public trust during the 2020 election. Those USPS board of governors appointed by President Biden are negligent, and clearly, the entire anachronistic Board has failed   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Causal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue.</li> <li> Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li> Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	smobserved.com	Right

ID	Post	Source	Lean
3	  ...  Veteran Used Shotgun Butt To Beat Home Invader To Death After Attacker Slashed His Wife With A Knife. What good would gun control have done the Parrish couple? Not one bit! We'd just like to say to this Vietnam veteran: Mr. Parrish, you're a damn fine American — and millions of gun owners are proud as hell of what you did to protect yourself and your wife.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> <li> Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li> Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> </ul>    Like  Comment  Share 	secondamendmentdaily.com	Right
4	  ...  69-year-old grandma with breast cancer going to prison for entering capitol building on January 6th. According to the Bidens Department of Justice, this woman is a domestic terrorist. Absolutely disgusting. The USA has become a commie banana republic.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> <li> Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li> Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> </ul>    Like  Comment  Share 	thewashingtonstandard.com	Right

ID	Post	Source	Lean
5	  ...  The disgraced former president's son shared a clip of Bezos thanking Amazon's workers and customers for making his space trip possible. "They sure did," wrote Trump Jr. of Bezos's claim that Amazon workers helped pay for the space trip. "I bet they'd rather have gotten a raise." While Amazon workers would certainly appreciate a raise as well as better work conditions, the idea that Donald Trump Jr. cares one iota about them is preposterous. The Republican Party he adores has repeatedly blocked efforts to increase the federal minimum wage.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li> Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> <li> Causal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	occupydemocrats.com	Left
6	  ...  Republicans have weaponized the Supreme Court to weaken our democracy and obstruct progress. Now, everything that is essential to our lives — from protecting our voting rights to combating climate change and ensuring access to affordable health care -- depends on Supreme Court reform. The only way to immediately reverse Republicans' theft of the Court is to expand it by adding additional seats. It's time to take action   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> <li> Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> <li> Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	leftaction.com	Left

ID	Post	Source	Lean
7	     Trump's Truth Social On The Verge Of Imploding As Feds Ramp Up Investigations. Of course, it shouldn't surprise anyone that yet another company aligned with the disgraced ex-president is imploding. After all, he's made a career of creating companies and products that fail miserably and wind up mired in a legal morass.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Name calling: Labeling the object of the propaganda campaign as either something the target audience fears, hates, finds undesirable or otherwise loves or praises.</li> <li> Doubt - Questioning the credibility of someone or something</li> <li> Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	new.deepleftfield.info	Left
8	     Florida Governor Ron DeSantis is leading a hate crusade like America hasn't seen since the end of Jim Crow. From banning books to attempting to disenfranchise voters and overturn fair elections in other states, Republicans have the country on a suspicious and familiar slippery slope.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li> Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	thegopwatchdog.com	Left
9	     What we really need is a new generation of lawmakers who will free people from the bondage chains that we're being wrapped in by all these unconstitutional mandates. Politicians who will instill confidence into people that they can be prosperous with their own efforts like those before them who have realized their American Dreams. Only then can the country move forward to a higher ground and help other countries around the world prosper.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li> Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li> Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li> Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	rt.com	Independent

ID	Post	Source	Lean
10	  ██████████ ...  We must ask the question, does our government want us to feed our families and build our rural economies, or continue to cater to Wall Street? While American farmers may not see themselves as peasants, maybe they should. Granted, it won't be easy to create local and regional food systems that are based on environmentally responsible, small-scale operations that grow nutritious, fairly priced food. Yet dismissing peasant agriculture also diminishes our chances to control our food system. If what appears in the UNDROP makes sense, then being a peasant is something to aspire to, a goal that all of us who care about agriculture should work towards.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Black-and-white fallacy: Presenting two alternative options as the only possibilities, when in fact more possibilities exist.</li> <li>Bandwagon: Attempting to persuade the target audience to join in and take the course of action because "everyone else is taking the same action".</li> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	wisconsinlaketimes.com	Independent
11	  ██████████ ...  In an eerie semblance to George Orwell's '1984', the RESTRICT Act, looms as a dark cloud over American liberties. The parallels to Orwell's vision are striking, as the RESTRICT Act essentially serves as a tool of control and punishment. It is a sobering reminder of the dystopian fate that awaits the public if it allows government unchecked power in the name of security from foreign nations.   Propaganda Warning  This post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Flag-waving: Playing on strong national feeling to justify or promote an action or idea.</li> <li>Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternative</li> <li>Loaded language: Using phrases with strong emotional implications (positive or negative) to influence an audience.</li> </ul>   Like            Comment            Share         	rt.com	Independent

ID	Post	Source	Lean
12	...Given the ten years since the Edward Snowden leaks, we already know that US intelligence collects all sorts of bulk data about people. We know that the US has programs like PRISM, which allows for the direct monitoring of Americans' Google and Yahoo accounts, or XKeyscore, which is an analytical tool that collects "almost anything done on the internet." And the US is able to do this — maintain its global information hegemony — because companies are compelled to provide data via search warrants.Many countries around the world, especially those in Europe, are taking cues from US intelligence to ban Chinese or Russian technology while completely ignoring the elephant in the room: the US government and its partners in the private sector are the chief threats to global cyber security.Propaganda WarningThis post uses propaganda techniques that are commonly used to influence you to think, act or feel a certain way.Appeal to fear: Seeking to build support for an idea by instilling anxiety and/or panic in the population towards an alternativeCausal oversimplification: Assuming one cause when there are multiple causes behind an issue OR the transfer of blame to one person without investigating the complexities of an issue. Like Comment Share	rt.com	Independent

4. Control

ID	Post	Source	Lean
1	 Entire U.S. supply of diesel engine oil may be wiped out in 8 weeks. Considering some buffer time in all this, that puts us at around mid-November for the “truck-a-geddon” scenario where trucks are no longer functioning because there’s no engine oil. The way things are going under the Biden administration — a senile crook who was thrust into power with a rigged, illegitimate “election” — we can only expect the worst. Like Comment Share	naturalnews.com	Right
2	 The United States Postal Service is in desperate shape. USPS Postmaster General Louis de Joy is the one person most culpable in the relentless dismantling of our national treasure. Specifics of his assaults on the post office and his illicit political agenda are highlighted by his compromising of public trust during the 2020 election. Those USPS board of governors appointed by President Biden are negligent, and clearly, the entire anachronistic Board has failed Like Comment Share	smobserved.com	Right
3	 Veteran Used Shotgun Butt To Beat Home Invader To Death After Attacker Slashed His Wife With A Knife. What good would gun control have done the Parrish couple? Not one bit! We’d just like to say to this Vietnam veteran: Mr. Parrish, you’re a damn fine American — and millions of gun owners are proud as hell of what you did to protect yourself and your wife. Like Comment Share	secondamendmentdaily.com	Right
4	 69-year-old grandma with breast cancer going to prison for entering capitol building on January 6th. According to the Bidens Department of Justice, this woman is a domestic terrorist. Absolutely disgusting. The USA has become a commie banana republic. Like Comment Share	thewashingtonstandard.com	Right

ID	Post	Source	Lean
5	 ... The disgraced former president's son shared a clip of Bezos thanking Amazon's workers and customers for making his space trip possible. "They sure did," wrote Trump Jr. of Bezos's claim that Amazon workers helped pay for the space trip. "I bet they'd rather have gotten a raise." While Amazon workers would certainly appreciate a raise as well as better work conditions, the idea that Donald Trump Jr. cares one iota about them is preposterous. The Republican Party he adores has repeatedly blocked efforts to increase the federal minimum wage. <hr/>   Like          Comment          Share       	occupydemo crats.com	Left
6	 ... Republicans have weaponized the Supreme Court to weaken our democracy and obstruct progress. Now, everything that is essential to our lives — from protecting our voting rights to combating climate change and ensuring access to affordable health care -- depends on Supreme Court reform. The only way to immediately reverse Republicans' theft of the Court is to expand it by adding additional seats. It's time to take action <hr/>   Like          Comment          Share       	leftaction.co m	Left
7	 ... Trump's Truth Social On The Verge Of Imploding As Feds Ramp Up Investigations. Of course, it shouldn't surprise anyone that yet another company aligned with the disgraced ex-president is imploding. After all, he's made a career of creating companies and products that fail miserably and wind up mired in a legal morass. <hr/>   Like          Comment          Share       	new.deepleft field.info	Left
8	 ... Florida Governor Ron DeSantis is leading a hate crusade like America hasn't seen since the end of Jim Crow. From banning books to attempting to disenfranchise voters and overturn fair elections in other states, Republicans have the country on a suspicious and familiar slippery slope. <hr/>   Like          Comment          Share       	thegopwatch dog.com	Left
9	 ... What we really need is a new generation of lawmakers who will free people from the bondage chains that we're being wrapped in by all these unconstitutional mandates. Politicians who will instill confidence into people that they can be prosperous with their own efforts like those before them who have realized their American Dreams. Only then can the country move forward to a higher ground and help other countries around the world prosper. <hr/>   Like          Comment          Share       	rt.com	Independent

ID	Post	Source	Lean
10	        We must ask the question, does our government want us to feed our families and build our rural economies, or continue to cater to Wall Street? While American farmers may not see themselves as peasants, maybe they should. Granted, it won't be easy to create local and regional food systems that are based on environmentally responsible, small-scale operations that grow nutritious, fairly priced food. Yet dismissing peasant agriculture also diminishes our chances to control our food system. If what appears in the UNDROP makes sense, then being a peasant is something to aspire to, a goal that all of us who care about agriculture should work towards.   Like          Comment          Share       	wisconsinlak etimes.com	Independent
11	        In an eerie semblance to George Orwell's '1984', the RESTRICT Act, looms as a dark cloud over American liberties. The parallels to Orwell's vision are striking, as the RESTRICT Act essentially serves as a tool of control and punishment. It is a sobering reminder of the dystopian fate that awaits the public if it allows government unchecked power in the name of security from foreign nations.   Like          Comment          Share       	rt.com	Independent
12	        Given the ten years since the Edward Snowden leaks, we already know that US intelligence collects all sorts of bulk data about people. We know that the US has programs like PRISM, which allows for the direct monitoring of Americans' Google and Yahoo accounts, or XKeyscore, which is an analytical tool that collects "almost anything done on the internet." And the US is able to do this — maintain its global information hegemony — because companies are compelled to provide data via search warrants. Many countries around the world, especially those in Europe, are taking cues from US intelligence to ban Chinese or Russian technology while completely ignoring the elephant in the room: the US government and its partners in the private sector are the chief threats to global cyber security.   Like          Comment          Share       	rt.com	Independent