01	R: OK, so we are in your Bedroom, and what time do you wake up?  P: My alarm goes off at 07:30 every morning.  R: Is that just one alarm, or do you have multiple sets?  P: One is set, but sometimes I snooze it.  R: OK, so what is the purpose of the alarm in your routine?  P: To get up and get ready for work but also to get my kids up for school.  R: OK, so how long do you have between the alarm first going off and the time you need to be at school or work?  P: Roughly, it is about an hour.  R: So, is this quite a tight routine, or is it quite relaxed?  P: Yeah, it is not too bad.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Phone charger on the floor beside participant's side of bed.</li> <li>• No alarm clock visible on the side.</li> </ul>
02	R: OK, leaving your bedroom, where do you go first?  P: The first thing I do is wake my daughter and son up.  R: And what time would this be?  P: It is about 07:35.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Shown to open children's Bedroom doors in a slow manner.</li> </ul>

04	P: As she wakes up, I go straight into the Bathroom to get ready.  R: How do you make sure they are getting up?  P: It is difficult to make sure they are getting out of bed, as they are not the most motivated kids to get ready for school, especially when they have had a later-than-planned bedtime for whatever reason.  R: Well, yes, so is your getting ready routine disrupted if they do not do as they are told?  P: Absolutely, it saves me loads of time and effort if they are getting dressed whilst I am showering as if they are still in bed; then it costs me time, as my priority shifts to		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Branded products on display in Bathroom.</li> </ul>

05	P: Yeah, then I go into my Bedroom to get dressed and then check on the kids and take them down for breakfast. R: So, are both of your children dressed? P: My daughter is because she has school, but my Son is a bit younger, so he is probably in his pyjamas still.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Clothes noted to be on the floor in piles.</li> </ul>
06	R: So then you go straight to the Kitchen, and then what? P: Then I would get the kids breakfast ready. R: And what time would this be? P: It is probably getting on for about 08:00. R: OK. P: We would do breakfast then packed lunches. R: OK, do you make yourself a packed lunch? P: No. R: Thinking back to your uniform, is that ready for you? P: Yeah, that is already the night before. R: Is that both uniforms, yours and your daughter? P: Yeah. R: And they are laid out, are they? P: Yes. R: And why do you do that? P: It is just one less thing to do in the morning. R: So, what is it about that, is it time, or do you enjoy putting your outfit together? P: Yeah, I'd say more the time aspect. R: So, being efficient in the morning? P: Yeah, making sure that it is out, and everybody knows that they have everything, and they are not running around looking for stuff. R: So, the kids have had their breakfast. Do you have breakfast? P: Yeah, I would grab a bit of toast or a bowl of cereal whilst the kids are eating.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Pots on draining board.</li> <li>• Variety of cereals on Kitchen worktop.</li> <li>• Children's certificates on Fridge.</li> </ul>
07	R: Then what happens? P: We would then all go upstairs to give the kids a wash and to clean their teeth.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Distinct children's toiletries grouped together in the Bathroom.</li> </ul>

	R: OK, so it is back through the Living Room, do you use the Living Room in the morning? P: Not until the kids are ready, and then if there is time afterwards, then they can sit downstairs and watch TV. R: OK, so we are back upstairs. P: Yeah. R: And then what do you do? P: The kids would come with me, they would have a wash and clean their teeth and basically get ready. My daughter would comb her hair and do that. R: OK, does your daughter have a backpack that she needs to get ready? P: Yeah, so the backpack is done the night before it would just be the lunch box the night before that would need putting in. R: OK and that is on the Kitchen worktop downstairs now? P: Yeah. R: OK, so what now? P: After the kids had gotten ready, they would go downstairs and watch TV until it is time to go.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pointed to where backpack would be left on landing by the stairs.</li> </ul>
08	R: Do you watch TV with them? P: No, I would use the time to make sure that I was ready.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Make-up products on display in the Bedroom.</li> </ul>
09	R: OK, and then go? P: Yeah, I would take my daughter to school and son to his childminder. R: What time would this be? P: We leave for school at about 08:40. R: OK, and then from school you go to work? P: Yeah, I go to work.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Storeroom with lots of coats inside.</li> </ul>
10	R: So, what time would you come in from work? P: So, I would normally get home for about 16:30 in the afternoon. R: OK, so how does your daughter then get picked up from school? P: Her father would collect her and then I would pick her up on my way back from work and for my son too.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Participant shows how they would kick their shoes off in Entrance Hall.</li> </ul>
11	R: OK, so you come through the door and what would be the first thing that you do? P: I would probably put the TV on. R: OK, so put the TV on for your children? P: Yeah, TV would go on.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>As acting out routine, TV showed a Netflix account with children's programmes pre-loaded.</li> <li>iPad to be found on the sofa, along with children's toys.</li> </ul>
12	R: Ok, so what do you do?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No visible sign of cookbooks in Kitchen.</li> </ul>

	P: I would go to the Kitchen and start making dinner. R: OK, so is dinner pre-planned or is it more make it up as you go along? P: No, some nights we know what we are going to have and other nights we are less prepared. R: Do you enjoy cooking? P: Yeah, I do not mind it. R: Do you think the kids enjoy the meals that they eat? P: Yeah. R: So you are making dinner and the kids are watching TV and the time is? P: It is probably about 17:00. R: So, what happens after dinner, do you eat in the Living Room or Kitchen? P: Yeah, we eat at the table. R: Altogether? P: Yeah. R: And then what happens? P: Then I clear the pots away and my daughter stays in the Kitchen to do her homework.
13	R: So, after doing the pots and the homework, what happens? P: I put the kids to be at 19:30. R: OK, and do you have to tuck them in or any ritual like that to comfort them? P: Well, my daughter has a reading book from school, and depending on if she is able to get to sleep or not, I would read to her to help her fall asleep. R: Like a bedtime story? P: Yeah, but my son often wants to listen in, so he gets into bed with my daughter for the story, and then I carry him out as he is usually falling to asleep by then. R: And do you enjoy reading them a story?" P: Of course, it is a real joy of mine, but it would be easier sometimes for them to fall to asleep without it as I have other jobs to do, and sometimes, we can get carried away and be reading for an hour or so. R: Making it even later for them. P: Yes, making it difficult for them to get up the next day. R: OK, what do you do after that time? P: I come back downstairs and sit and watch TV. R: And this time is for yourself? P: Yeah.
14	R: And what time would you go to bed? P: About 21:30 to 22:00.

	R: OK, so whilst you are downstairs do you prepare anything for the next day, so backpack, lunches or meals? P: I do go through my daughter's backpack to make sure that there are not any letters that I have missed, and I get the lunch box out to redo in the morning. R: OK, then to bed? P: Yeah, I would lock up and go to the Bathroom and get into bed.
