

Topic	Activities	Linguistic Structures	Vocabulary
Geography, Q1, Writing a localization	General assignments: Searching Chololo, Tanzania in Atlas, reading Chololo's coordinates on chosen map, reading the text about Chololo in the schoolbook, writing a localization
	Listening: Following teacher's instructions.	Write a complete localization for Chololo, Tanzania.	to write something
	Speaking: /
	Reading: Reading Chololo's coordinates, reading text about Chololo in the schoolbook.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The country ... is located on the continent ... The coordinates of ... are... 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - periodic dry seasons - Regional supply - Ecosystems - migrate due to... - Yields - Groundwater - Biogas plant - Intercropping
	Writing: Writing a complete localization.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The country ... is located on the continent ... The coordinates of ... are ... - The country ... is situated between the ... and ... southern latitude, as well as between the ... and ... western longitude. - The capital of ... is ..., located in the northern/eastern/... part of the country. - It is ... meters above sea level. - In the south, a river flows / a lake is located / ... The mountain ... is situated in the ... of the country. - The average annual temperature is ... - The highest/lowest temperature occurs in the month of ..., reaching ... degrees. - This corresponds to a temperature variation/amplitude throughout the year of ... degrees. - The annual precipitation is ... mm. - The most rainfall occurs in the month of ..., while the least rainfall is in the month of ... - There are ... arid (dry) and ... humid (moist) months. - In the town of ..., the ... is particularly characteristic. This can be recognized especially by ... 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Latitude - Longitude - is located in the north/south/west/east of... - the annual average temperature - the amplitude