

Supplementary figure 2. Relationship between serum albumin concentrations and time from serum to CSF sampling

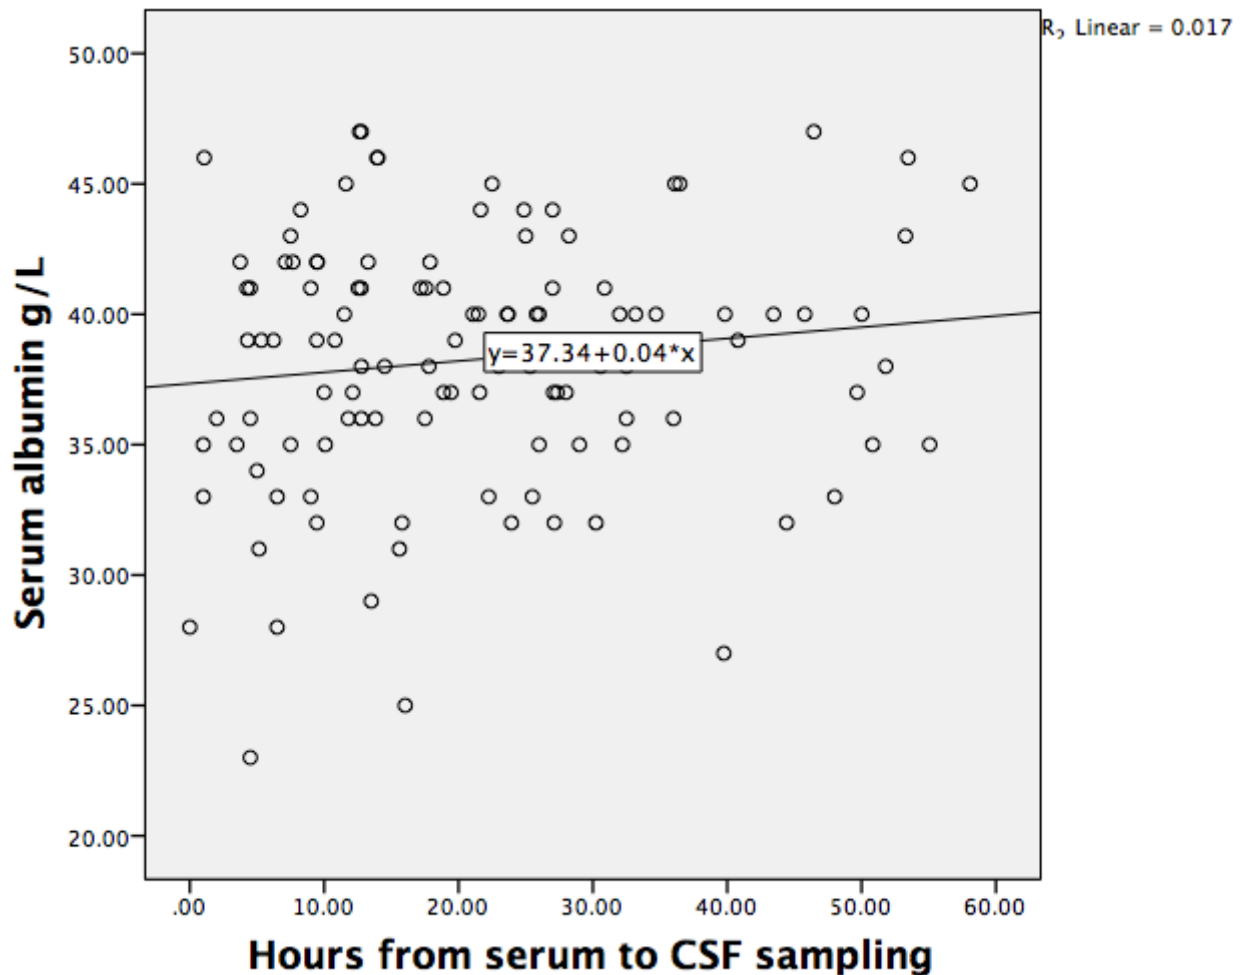

Figure legend

All serum albumin values were plotted with the time from serum to CSF sampling. There was no significant correlation (Spearman correlation coefficient: 0.090, $P=0.166$), suggesting no general trend of albumin changes in this timeframe in the population as a whole.