

Aims

There are many changes afoot in academic publishing. We therefore warmly welcome you to this day of short talks, panel discussions, and conversation aiming to optimize our collective approach to open access publishing.

Topics for discussion include new open access platforms, the peer review process and role of reviewer, use of metrics, what we can gain from IT, managing sensitive data, and the balance between sharing scientific work whilst retaining ownership.

The aims are to help optimise the accessibility and impact of scientific output, to facilitate discussions between academia and publishers, to identify where to go for help with publishing, and to address some of the common frustrations, pitfalls and challenges of publication. This will be contextualised within the University's publishing requirements.

In encouraging and facilitating open discussion between funders, academia and publishers we hope to improve channels of communication, facilitate new collaborations and strengthen working relationships.

Feedback

Please take the time to fill in online feedback:
<https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/RYCQBKQ>

We will send out the link via email after the meeting. Your responses are really important.

Who's who?

Contacts & links

Today's program has been developed as the result of a collaborative effort between the Nuffield Department of Medicine, Open Access Oxford, and Oxford University Academic IT.

Email:

Philippa.matthews@ndm.ox.ac.uk
juliet.ralph@bodleian.ox.ac.uk
howard.noble@it.ox.ac.uk

Web:

<https://www.ndm.ox.ac.uk/principal-investigators/researcher/philippa-matthews>

<http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk>

<http://research.it.ox.ac.uk>

You can find more background information in this article: Matthews PC. Fairness in scientific publishing [version 2; referees: 3 approved]. F1000Research 2017, 5:2816 (doi: 10.12688/f1000research.10318.2)

Thank you

To cover the costs of this meeting, we have had support from the Director's Fund of the Peter Medawar Building for Pathogen Research, Oxford Academic IT, the Nuffield Department of Medicine and Oxford University Bodleian Libraries.

Publishers, Papers & Peer Review

20 Jan 2017

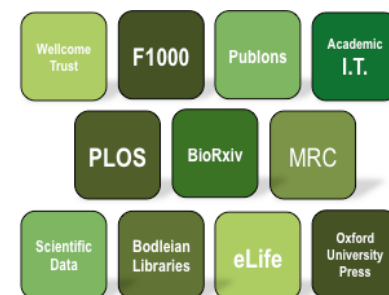

Program

The timetable is based on a series of short presentations lasting 10-15 minutes each.

We aim to encourage and facilitate questions and discussion throughout, but particularly in the panel-led sessions at the end of the morning and afternoon. Please also feel free to speak to individual contributors in the breaks.

Further information and contact details for our speakers is available on a separate sheet.

Morning

TIME	SESSION	FACILITATORS/SPEAKERS
10:30-10:45	Arrivals and coffee
10:45-11:00	Welcome / introduction	Philippa Matthews
11:00-11:15	Wellcome Open Research	Robert Kiley
11:15-11:30	F1000	Rebecca Lawrence
11:30-11:45	eLife	Mark Patterson
11:45-12:00	BioRxiv	John Inglis
12:00-12:15	Scientific Data	Susanna Assunta Sansone
12:15-12:30	Oxford University IT	Howard Noble, Rowan Wilson, Martin Hadley
12:30-13:00	Panel discussion
13:00-13:45	LUNCH
	Please use the break as an opportunity for further discussion. The IT department will be available to discuss specific projects and members of the Bodleian Libraries will be available to discuss support for open access publishing at Oxford.

Afternoon

TIME	SESSION	FACILITATORS/SPEAKERS
13:45-14:00	MRC	Geraldine Clement-Stoneham
14:00-14:15	Publons	Laura Harvey, Tom Culley
14:15-14:30	PLOS	Louise Page
14:30-14:45	OUP	Lucy Oates
14:45-15:00	Europe PMC	Maria Levchenko
15:00-15:15	Bodleian Libraries & OA support for Oxford researchers	Sally Rumsey, Juliet Ralph
15:15-15:30	TEA
	Please use the break as an opportunity for further discussion.
15:30-15:55	Panel discussion
15:55-16:00	Summing up / close	Paul Klenerman Philippa Matthews