

😤 Data Visualization Resources

Books:

More practical:

- "Show Me the Numbers" by Stephen Few
- "Information Dashboard Design" by Stephen Few.
- "Storytelling with Data" by Cole Nussbaumer Knaflic

More conceptual:

- "The Visual Display of Quantitative Information" by Edward Tufte
- "Envisioning Information" by Edward Tufte
- "Visual Explanations" by Edward Tufte
- "Beautiful Evidence" by Edward Tufte
- "The Truthful Art" by Alberto Cairo
- "The Functional Art" by Alberto Cairo

Online Resources:

Advice on minimalism from DarkHorse analytics:

- Data Looks Better Naked: Bar Charts
- Data Looks Better Naked: Pie Charts
- Data Looks Better Naked: Data Tables

Influential blogs:

- 'Junk Charts' by Kaiser Fung
- 'Visual Business Intelligence' by Stephen Few
- 'Eager Eyes' by Robert Kosara

For choosing suitable colour palettes:

ColorBrewer 2.0

Two active sub-Reddits, both offering useful lessons:

- r/dataisbeautiful
- r/dataisugly

An influential journal article:

'Rainbow color map (still) considered harmful' by Borland & Taylor

Question/comments/suggestions to: paul.cuffe@ucd.ie

