

Online Suppl. Fig. 1. Timeline illustrating the first half-year after the accident. Conventional medical interventions are colored white, while therapies that were added independently by the patient are colored black, and complications are marked with dotted lines.