

Figure S1. Pattern analysis.

Visualization of the observed patterns of differentially regulated genes between paired and unpaired trained flies over time. “up” signifies significantly higher and “down” significantly lower median gene expression in the paired group compared to the unpaired group. “neutral” denotes no significant median gene expression difference between paired and unpaired trained flies.