How to collect a wound swab specimen

- Use sterile swab with transport media
- Perform hand hygiene, put on gloves
- Clean wound with sterile saline prior to pus swab collection

- Collect fresh pus
- Insert swab firmly into transport media in the transport tube

- Label specimen
- Write clinical information and site of the wound on request form

- Transport to laboratory immediately after collection