As we move into 2019, I want to share with you a list of my Top 10 blog posts on F.F. Bosworth in 2018. Out of the 50+ posts on Bosworth's life history, the one that generated the most views was about William Branham and Ern Baxter. The second most viewed post was the story of P.C. Nelson and how his work with Bosworth inspired him to start his own healing ministry. Interestingly, the number three post also featured Branham. It recounted an incident in South Africa in which he was rebuked by Bosworth.

The listing that follows is based primarily on the stats generated by Strikingly.com for the last three months of the year and my notes taken throughout the year. The last two posts (9 and 10) are based on stats reported prior to October 2018. Strikingly.com's Simple Blog does not provide stats in any graph or diagram that shows the entire year at a glance. Instead, it shows up to three months. Even so, the list below is a good indication of what readers wanted to know about Bosworth. Take a look.
