

Supplementary Figure S14. Principal Coordinates Analysis (PCoA) plots of Bray-Curtis dissimilarities representing the graphical results of multivariate homogeneity tests that compare sample dispersion between substrate types (rocks, soil) in bacterial, fungal and algal communities. Boxplots in the lower panel depict basic summary data related to distances to centroids.