

Figure S1. The scintillating grid illusion without the grid. Gaze around the image, moving one's eyes for a certain time (few seconds). You will find a very brief scintillation of illusory black spots in the circular patches outside the point of fixation or attention. The image could be printed out in A4 size.