Images of the paper Gender and Bankarization in Spain, 1949-1970

Figure 2. Women walking in the street in the northern city of Vigo in front of Banco de La Coruña

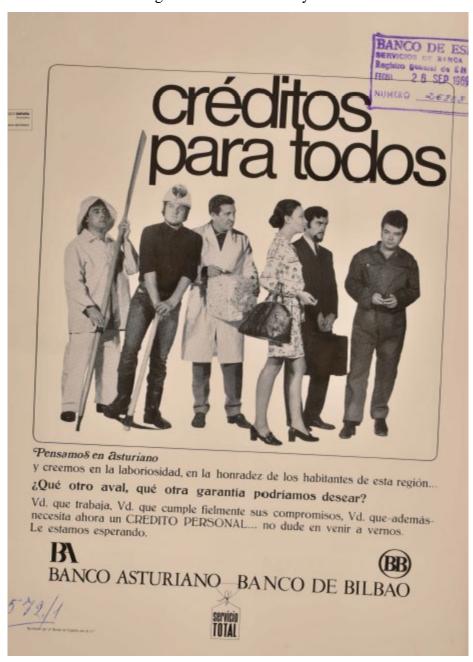

Source: AHBE-BP. 182 Banco de La Coruña: application to the BE dated 29 April 1951

Figure 3: Women depicted in traditional roles but ignored in the advert's text.

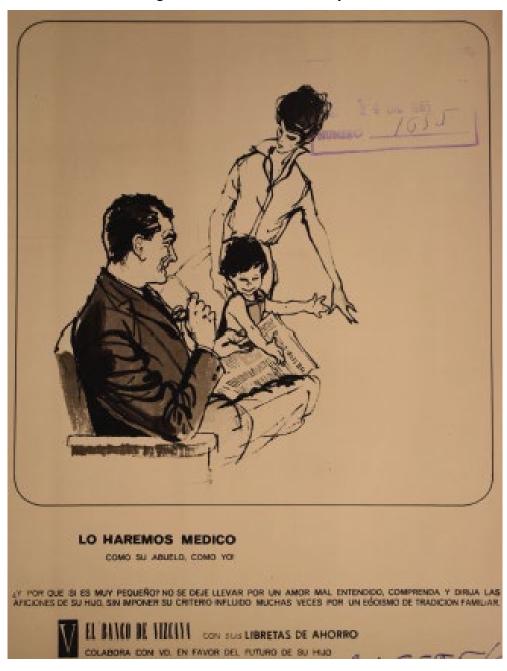

Source: AHBE-BP.187 Banco Popular Español: authorization to publish a new add from the BE, date of the reply 8 October 1956.

Figure 4. 'Loans for everyone'

Source: AHBE-BP. 1012 Banco Asturiano-Banco Bilbao reply from BE 22 September 1969.

Figure 5. 'He wants to be like you'.

Source: AHBE-BP. 994 Banco Vizcaya: request addressed to the Banco de Vizcaya dated 29 December 1965.

Figure 6: 'Teach your children to save'.

Source: AHBE-BP. 1130 Banco Popular Español: request to the BE, date of reply 28 March 1960.

Figure 7: 'Safe and secure travel'

Source: AHBE-BP. 992 Banco Coca: request sent to BE, 5 July 1966

Figure 8. 'And she... does she deserve a personal credit?'

Source: AHBE-BP. 1008 Banco de Santander sent to the BE reply from the BE 30 October 1967.

Figure 9: 'You cannot double your performance'.

Source: AHBE-BP. 1009 Banco de Vizcaya reply from the Banco de Vizcaya, 27 February 1968.

ARCHIVAL SOURCES

AHBE: Archivo Histórico del Banco de España. Fondo Banca Privada – Censura de Publicidad (1949-1970) (Reference Code: ES.28079.AHBE/01.11).